“Ahoy, Rotary Mates!”

 2004 *****

District 5300 Conference, June 3-6, 2004
Irvine Marriott Hotel
18000 Von Karman Ave.
Irvine, California

A Few Words from the District Governor

I look forward to sailing with you at District Conference in Irvine. We have a special weekend lined up for Rotarians and their families as we Get Anchored in Rotary. Please join us as we celebrate a wonderful year.

Barbara Risher Welch,
District 5300 District Governor

Come aboard, we're expecting you.

Join Captain Barbara as we celebrate a year of successes in the nautically decorated Irvine Marriott Hotel. Enjoy the beauty of a perfect setting in Southern California. Bike to nearby Newport Beach, or relax in the lush amenities of a world class hotel. See how a hotel on land can feel and look like a cruise to paradise.

Fill your passport by meeting and greeting Rotarians and win a chance for a dream cruise vacation.

Meet, greet and relax with fellow Rotarians in the House of Friendship and our “exciting and new” unique all-club hospitality pavilion.

Play in the tennis tournament, golf tournament or just relax by the beautiful hotel pool.

Plenary sessions that are as fun as they informative – 4-Way Speech Contest; not one, but two GSE teams, Ambassadorial Scholars and the George Hensel Essay Awards.

See the District Conference page for more information.

Reasons why you don't want this ship to sail without you.

Thursday, June 3rd

Dinner - Board the beautiful "Zumbrota" for a fantasy dinner cruise around Newport Harbor.

Friday, June 4th

Noon - Hear Rotary International representative Gregory Yank, owner and principal of GY Consulting and Facilitation Services. Yank is a seasoned speaker who is sure to evoke your Rotary imagination.

Dinner - The angelic voices of the Azusa Pacific Singers will serenade you.

Dinner - Chris Lewis, representative of Wheelchair Foundation and son of entertainer and philanthropist Jerry Lewis, will be on hand to salute our Wheelchair Foundation drive. Don't miss the Roll Call of Clubs and hear of our successes.

Do not miss this uplifting evening!

Saturday, June 5th

Noon - A crowd pleaser: Dan Stover Music Competition.

Dinner - Rotarian Charles Lane, humorist and motivational speaker for Rotary Institutes and multi-district PETS, will enthrall you with his wit, and motivational antidotes.

Sunday, June 6th

8:30 - 9:30 a.m. - Uplifting non-denominational ecumenical celebration.

Don't miss the boat! There's still time to board this ship.
Set sail on a cruise to remember...
