Help East Bremerton Rotary via Kitsap Great Give

This special Monday Edition of the EBR Bulletin is coming out early because the event that for the past few years has raised the most money for EBR's charitable giving projects is TOMORROW, on Tuesday, March 11.

Our club is once again participating in the Kitsap Great Give, an annual community day of philanthropy put on by the Kitsap Community Foundation that helps more than 300 nonprofits raise money. This is the time for members to make a gift to the EBR Foundation on par with what you would have given to our former auction fundraisers, and we raised approximately $20,000 through the event a year ago. Encourage friends or other EBR supporters to join as well and help seed our account for projects EBR will take on during the coming year when Jeff Rowe takes over as club president.

Go to the Kitsap Great Give website now or all through the day on Tuesday, and browse through nonprofits participating or search for East Bremerton Rotary. Give early, and give often!

Last week Kathy King from the LeMay America's Car Museum told us all about the story of Lucky LeMay's car collection and how his family built an iconic museum in Tacoma to house some of the 3,500 cars in his collection.

To learn more about the LeMay America's Car Museum visit its website here.

This week EBR member and storyteller Denny Smith will take the mic with a talk about the history of jazz music, one of Denny's passions.

Rotary announcements

Dictionary season at CK schools

Dick Sims is once again leading our annual EBR dictionary distribution program, giving a new children's dictionary to every third-grade student in the Central Kitsap School District. Teams have been visiting classrooms the past two weeks (Jay Lovato, above, Howar Julien, Craig Volwiler and David Nelson, below, at Brownsville Elementary last Thursday), and thanks to everyone who's taken some time to meet with the students. Keep a lookout for an opportunity at the last few schools to visit and join the fun.

March Madness Bracket Challenge

The annual NCAA college basketball tournament's approach means it's time to draw names and make some money for the East Bremerton Rotary Foundation. Jay Lovato will be selling tickets for $20 each on March 5 and 12. Selections will be drawn on March 19 after the club meeting. The club member who draws the winning team's name gets $300, with $100 going to the other Final Four teams.

Who's happy?

From the March 5 meeting...

Stacey Dore was happy for an upcoming trip to Arizona in her new Rivian electric car, and hoping to find charging stations along the way... Ron Muhleman, for Andy Graham and David Emmons to recognize the work they put into the comedy show... Jon Buesch, for our program on the LeMay American's Car Museum... President Andy, for the comedy show and working with David E.... and Jay Lovato, happy for a recent day spent with his new grandson.

Jerry LeTexier had his ticket called, and the winnings went to the Foundation to credit Jerry's Paul Harris Award...
