LOVE IN THE AIR??

Ah, the aroma of love in the air. . .wait, maybe it was smelly rainboots. Whatever it was, Reedley Rotary had a lovely Valentine's lunch with spouses, friends, and College athletes (one of these things is not like the other). President Horton strode valiantly through the doors with his SuperBowl winning Eagles skullcap while Sue Buckley did her best Paddington Bear impression, with trenchcoat, hat and umbrella. Jean Clemons bravely admitted that she attended a Lions lunch, for which she submitted the obligatory $50 fine. And Joe Garza pre-empted a stay in the dog house by placing the winning bid on a Valentine's themed birthday basket for his better half.

The program of the hour was about the Reedley College football team. There is a fundraising effort underway to be able to purchase new technology for the team, including headsets, sideline camera technology, and safety bars for the gym. Any Rotarians who would like to donate can go online to the Reedley College Quarterback Club and place a tax-deductible donation there.
