Rotarian Robert, and Karla of MHDC, with President Denise

Wednesday, February 5th, Montebello Housing Development Corporation (MHDC), a HUD approved Non-Profit housing consultancy, hosted the Rotary Club for its weekly meeting. The attendees were brought up to speed with some of the housing purchase services and assistance MHDC provides to the community. And a project to help faith based organizations develop on-site housing.

With input from another Rotarian and Real Estate professional, Gabe Garza, the attendees also learned a bit more about some of the impact the recent L.A. fires have had, along with corresponding available federal housing assistance programs available to local SoCal residents impacted by the fires; which have only exacerbated the crunch on housing availability in LA County.

MHDC provides a myriad of services for home purchasers, from HUD approved buyer's classes, to pre-purchase, foreclosure and down payment assistance. Everyone is encouraged to check-out their website: <https://mhdcca.org/>
