John Shay spoke about his owners at Lulu California Bistro, Jerry and Barbra Keller. Barbra was a true philanthropist until her passing however Jerry and the company supported John in being very active in our community, both in hospitality and non-profit and giving back to those less fortunate. John spoke of how this worked through various organizations and donated 2 food vouchers to our PE Mark Vivian for our club to auction off.

Club Happenings

New Sojourner, Tom Lieber from Cooperstown, New York and visiting Cliff Branan from Oklahoma City Rotary, with a membership of over 600 members, presented and swapped Rotary banners with President Karl.

Howard Hoffenberg, from Indio noon, also joined us for the afternoon.

Tim Ellis informed the members about our Palm Spring Rotary Foundation grants. Tim encouraged anyone who knows of a charitable organization that would be worthy of a grant to submit a grant request this month. Michele has re-sent the request for proposal to all the club members for their processing.

The marble game winner was Rossana Jeran but unfortunately, she only pulled a yellow marble.
