Bill Clevlen, Radio Broadcaster and Author

Wednesday, April 2, 2025

Long time St. Louis radio broadcaster Bill Clevlen became fed up with reading negative travel stories, and decided to launch a website to focus on road trips and highlight only the positives.

His "Bill on the Road" stories can be heard on popular syndicated radio programs, television stations, and SiriusXM satellite radio. He is the author of five travel books, and is a frequent guest speaker for conferences and a lecturer on travel topics for The Smithsonian.
