Uncertainty Reduction Theory, Racheal Dami Odunewu

Dami is a visionary leader and medical missionary who founded Divine Missions Health Center in Republic, Missouri, to provide healthcare to underserved communities locally and internationally. As a passionate workplace coach, she helps individuals and teams discover their potential, aiming to transform workplaces. Recognizing the challenges faced by international students, Dami created Purpose Connect to bridge the gap between students and employment opportunities. She has also developed impactful programs like the Purpose Strategy Program, the Business Go-Givers Club, and the Ultimate Team Party, which focus on career strategy, leadership, and cultural competency. A strong advocate for racial and ethnic diversity, Dami is dedicated to creating a more inclusive community in Southwest Missouri, where she lives with her six-year-old son and mother.
