

Cassville Reports on Dictionary Gifting, Exchange Student and Demolition Derby

By Linda Johnson

Cassville Rotary recently presented free personalized dictionaries to all 3rd graders in Barry County for the 8th year in a row. According to Dictionary Project Chairman, Caleb Buntin, over 300 dictionaries with each students name on the inside cover were handed out by Rotarians.

Cassville Rotary Club held the annual Demolition Derby which was a huge success. (pictured is local hero and winner Rusty Newman of Cassville, Mo.)

Pictured is Cassville Rotary Exchange Student, Ferdy Cadario from Bolivia (South America) along with President, Keith Parker.

