Meeting Speakers

On January 17, author Barbara Howell told about her life and challenges as she learned woodworking and became successful as a cabinet/display maker, known as Southern Lady Showcases. She began as a pig farmer from Tennessee and took over the business when her husband became ill, learning the craft from Amish folks.

Brad Johnson of Lawn America spoke on January 10 about his success on "A Compassionate Journey." He recounted the challenges and surprises while he tackled walking the Appalachian Trail providing an inspiring presentation. Above, he is signing the book to go to the school library.

NEWS FLASH!

Cupp team wins Trivia Test Run 1/24 at NSU-BA

Team Donica

Team Baker

Team Barrett

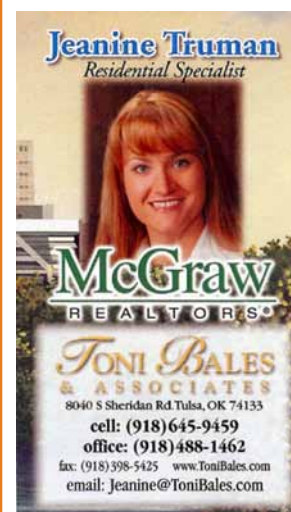

Winning Team Cupp consisted of Scott Graham, Terry Cupp, students Jana Clark and Caleb Forbes plus Jim Beavers. Congratulations, and best of luck when Terry's team competes in the Crowing Rights contest on February 19.

The Trivia Test Run at NSU-BA on January 24 was a great success. NSU provided an excellent lunch and venue, we had a good time as did the students attending, and we are better prepared to put on the big event on February 19.

It pays to enter the 50/50 contest. Kirk Shell won the day's pot and donated it back to the scholarship fund.

A 50/50 ticket purchase has been added to our fundraising Trivia Contest. Matt Hancock is heading up this effort, offering $1 per ticket or $10 per stretch...and a stretch by Matt is impressive in scope.

We are visiting clubs in our area telling them about our contest, the online auction and selling 50/50 tickets. If you are interested in helping with that, please let Matt or Janie know.

This is what the online auction site looks like as of 1/26. As we get more items added, it will grow. The figure below each item is minimum bid or current bid as it develops. Clicking on an item brings up the details about it, plus photos. Whether you bid or not, please sign up as a member so our numbers look inviting to others viewing the site. Your sign-up information remains private to our club.

Jim Sills found this auction site and is maintaining its structure, so it is well-run and reliable. Nice to have great talent available!

Now is the time to get your teams signed up!

If you know anyone in the local community who'd enjoy being part of this, help them get signed up. There is an application form on our website, and we are accepting donations for the online silent auction. If you need any help with any of it, or can provide something for the auction, email or call Janie Thomas.

Make plans to help with the contest. We'll need everyone who is not actually playing to fill various spots — and it's fun! For those who are helping, buy your (and your friends) buffet tickets at cost, $10 each. The Italian buffet will open at 5:45 so helpers can eat before the contestants begin arriving for their dinner at 6. The contest begins at 6:30, so we need to be organized and ready to assist our guests find their food and tables.

Sign-up sheets will be available at meetings soon, and if you have preferences for your tasks, be sure to note it on the list.

Let's get this event moving. Tell your family and friends about the auction, and bring them along to watch the fun on February 19.
