PRESENTATION: Last week our presentation was brought to us by Erin Augustine. Erin is the executive director of the Campus Martius Museum. She detailed the 1824 visit of General Lafayette to the United States focusing on his visit to Marietta, Ohio within the broader context of the bicentennial commemoration. Erin highlighted the political and social climate of the time, including the Monroe Doctrine, the Missouri Compromise, and the ongoing treatment of Native Americans and enslaved people. She also detailed Lafayette's reception in New York City and his travels throughout the country and concluded with a discussion of the Lafayette 200 event upcoming in Marietta.

Split the pot: Winner of the daily Split the Pot was Kevin Witucky.
