PRESENTATION: The club had the privilege of hearing the new Football Coach at Marietta College, Tom Kaufman. Tom recently moved here with his wife, Stephanie, and 2 boys, Max & Jack (7 & 5 yrs. old). Tom has been coaching football for the last 23 years, almost exclusively at the college level in the Cleveland area, although his last several years were at Gilmore Catholic Academy (High School). Tom's emphasis is three fold; 1.) Culture, 2.) Talent Acquisition and 3.) Schemes (all schemes must work together). Per Culture, Coach Tom stated character development is the most important thing. He strives to build a strong culture affecting three areas: 1.) Belief (what are the core values that drive you), 2.) Behavior (are you getting the results you want? If not, change your behavior), 3.) How others experience the team- on and off the field and in the community. Coach Tom mentioned that summer camps will be available for children beginning later in the summer. Thanks Larry Hiser for introducing us to Marietta's promising new Football Coach, Tom Kaufman.

Split the Pot: Daily- $45 Jackpot- +$400 Winner (daily only): Sherry Wagner!
Game goes on!
