

Keynote

Rotary

Club of Homewood

February 23, 2025

Homewoodrotaryal.org

It's Time!!!

Volunteer slots still available - join us on Thursday to find out how you can help make our event awesome!

Email Jennifer (jmkyale55@gmail.com) as soon as possible your name and the names of your guests who will be attending the event and indicate if their ticket is paid for or payment will be made at the door.

Email Sandy (snelsqon@gmail.com) as soon as possible, the following on auction items you have not yet delivered to a meeting:
name to use for the item
description of the contents
estimated value of the item

St. Patrick's Day Event
Date: Saturday March 1, 2025
Time: 5:30pm to 9:30pm
Location: Valley Hotel
Address: 2727 18th St S
Homewood, AL 35209

Mid-Year Conference News

Thanks to Lisa Eckenrod, the success of the Pop-Top Challenge is becoming a district wide event!!

Lisa Eckenrod & District Governor David Allgood

Homewood Rotary Winner of stage one of the Pop-Top Challenge

Madison (2nd), Cullman (3rd), Alabaster-Pelham and Jasper (honorable mentions)

YOU ARE AWESOME!

Pop- Top Challenge Stage 2 will run until Rotary's Annual Conference in Chattanooga, TN, May 2-4, 2025.

Pop-Top Challenge supports Ronald McDonald House

Pubudu de Zoysa, Rotarian & Civil Engineer from Sri Lanka Rotary District 3030 spoke on behalf of Rotary & Rotary International's impact on improving infrasture post tsunami.

Here is the link to learn more:

<https://rotarynewsonline.org/revisiting-the-tsunami-destruction-in-sri-lanka/>

Polio Plus Participation Certificate

Homewood received a certificate of participation for our efforts in the 2024 Purple Pinkie Campaign.

HOMEWOOD ROTARIANS ATTENDING

Rachael Dollins- Grant
Writing & PrePETS
Robert Holmes, Traci Groce,
Jennifer Kyle, and Lisa Eckenrod - Mid Year Conference