March Social- Save the Date

Save the Date- Saturday March 29

Come learn about the rich but tumultuous road of Black history in St. Augustine. From the prosperous community of Linconville, birthed by free man and women in 1866, to stories of sit-ins, swim-ins and violence against those who sought equal rights, St. Augustine has played a crucial role in the history of American Black history. (Did you know that St. Augustine was the only place in Florida where M.L.K. was incarcerated?)

This will be an all-day social, including a walk of the Accord Freedom Trail in the morning, lunch, and a visit to the Linconville museum in the afternoon. You may join us for the whole day or only part of it. Families and friends are welcome.

Itinerary, RSVP and more information to follow.
