OCEWP Rotary Meeting 03272025

- Hafeez Ali led us in the prayer & pledge.
- President Mike Emerson informed us the Rotary District Awards ceremony will be on May 3rd in the Villages.
- Hafeez and Molly Ali celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary at the Punta Cana Resort in the Dominican Republic. They had a great time and some of their family members were there as well. They were impressed with the security at the resort.
- Jerry Poppell checked up on Ben Whisenant, Harl Graham and Brad Erb. They are all doing okay. Jerry is unhappy all six of the Bulldog teams are out of the NCAA Basketball Tournament.
- Our own DJ, Don Johnson, played the song Margaritaville by Jimmy Buffett to celebrate the start of spring.
- Marti Majersky & Sean Vincent, soon to be new members, were on hand.
- John Ingram won the 50-50.

Our speaker today is Bob Klettner, who told us about barbecue judging. Bob belongs to the Kansas City Barbecue Society (KCBS). Recognizing barbecue as America's cuisine, the mission of the Kansas City Barbecue Society is to celebrate, teach, preserve and promote barbecue as a culinary technique, sport and art form. The KCBS organizes events, teams and judges. Events will have classes, awards, championships and banquets. Team contest rules and regulations are set by the KCBS. Judges, representatives and organizers are established by the KCBS. The KCBS has a foundation, outfitters and partnerships with vendors and other organizations. The main classes of barbecue are chicken, ribs, pulled pork and brisket. The barbecue is judged on taste, tenderness and appearance. Typically, a judge will taste six entries for each of the four classes of meat. A couple of Bob's favorite BBQ restaurants are Mission BBQ in Oviedo and Kellers BBQ in Altamonte Springs.
