This Week at Rotary

Join us tomorrow morning at Jungle Rapids and find out who our speaker is. Try to bring a guest that might be interested in joining our club. We need to grow our membership. Don't forget to be working on your Golf Tournament prospects, sponsors and players. Report your progress to Golf Tournament Chairman Andy.

Last Week at Rotary, The Children's Museum

Our speaker last week was Jessie Goodwin from The Children's Museum here in Wilmington. She updated the club on the work of The Children's Museum. President Brent thanked her and presented her with a special insulated cup.

Meals on Wheels

Alicia, one of our guests from The Children's Museum won the raffle last week but she couldn't pull the Queen of Hearts. See ya tomorrow when over $2300 will be in the pot. Did you know there is a Joker on the table now. If you draw the Joker you get half of that days pot, AND the joker goes back on the table for next week. If you think this through, you will realize there might never be less than two cards on the table. If everyone fails to draw the Queen of Hearts all the way down to the last two cards, there will be extra excitement because one of the cards will be the Queen and the other will be the Joker. 50-50 chance. The Joker will be put back over and over until the Queen is drawn. This diabolical plan comes from our Meals on Wheels Chairman, Rob. It could add to the frustration.

Today's Joke

Baseball heaven?

There were two old guys, Abe and Sol, sitting on a bench in a park feeding pigeons and talking about baseball, just like they did every day.

Abe turns to Sol and says, "Do you think there's baseball in heaven?"
Soloman thinks about it for a minute and replies, "I dunno, Abe. But let's make a deal: If I die first, I will come back and tell you, and if you die first, you come back and tell me, if there is baseball in heaven."
They shake on it and, sadly, a few months later poor Abe passes on. One day soon afterward, Sol is sitting there feeding the pigeons by himself when he hears a voice whisper, "Sol... Sol..."
Sol responds, "Abe! Is that you?"
"Yes it is Sol," whispers the spirit of Abe.
Sol, still amazed, asks, "So, is there baseball in heaven?"
"Well," says Abe says, "I got good news and I got bad news."
"Gimme the good news first," says Sol.
Abe says, "Well... there is baseball in heaven."
Sol says, "That's great! What news could be bad enough to ruin that!?"

Abe sighs and whispers, "You're pitching on Friday."
