Last Week's Program

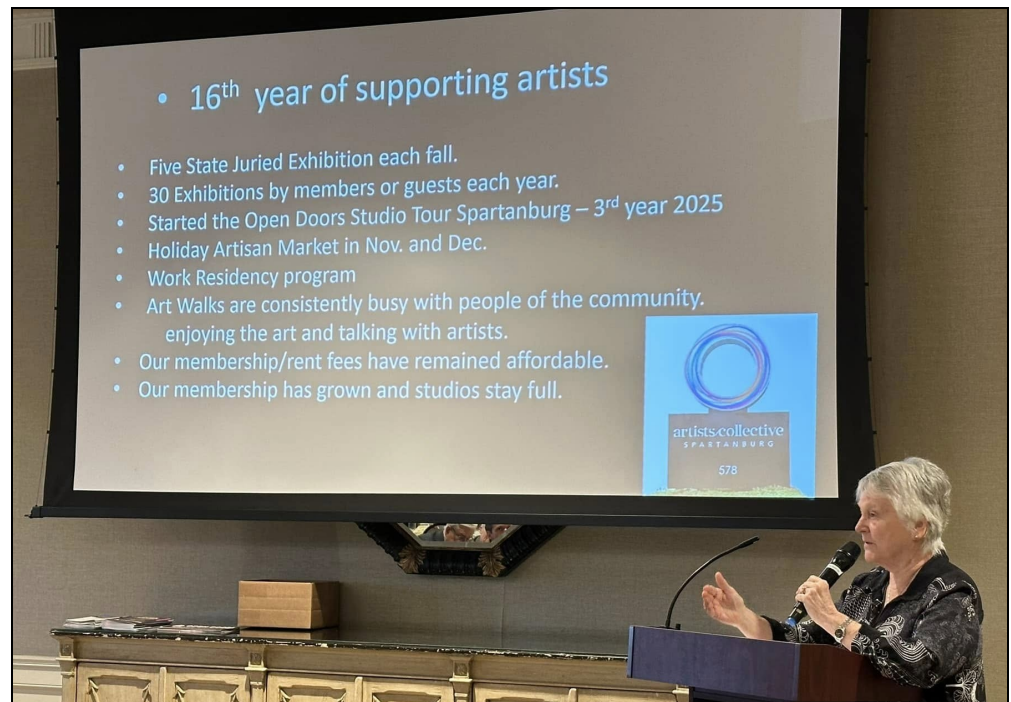

Beth Regula with the Artists Collective told the Club about the past, present and future of the Collective. For 16 years they have provided a place for artists to create, display work, and be around like-minded individuals. She told us their building on West Main Street is 3 stories with exhibitions, retail space, and maker's spaces. The future of collective will include refurbishing the building to expand their offerings.

Upcoming Programs

March 25 Sheriff Chuck Wright

April 1 Johnson Group Downtown Projects
- Reagan Holland

Beth Regula presented an informative program on the Artists Collective last week.

Travel around the area and visit with artists in their workspaces on April 26 & 27. This event is free and a great way to meet artists and see their work.

Birthdays

March 21 Jeff Brooks
March 23 Christi Brown
